wake up teachers we have the internet students do not want a teacher who gives them information they desire an inspirational classroom commander now more than ever educators must inspire their students to achieve their personal and collective victories the art of teaching is the go to manual for helping teachers understand how to win over the hearts and minds of their students the art of teaching presents five guiding elements of effective teaching the dao command law heaven and earth if these elements are fully understood and advantageously utilized by the teacher then they will lead their students to victory inspired by sun tzu's classic book the art of war the art of teaching provides pragmatic philosophies skills tactics and strategies for teachers so that they may create a more caring more creative and more cohesive classroom entrepreneurs and ceos have already enthusiastically and effectively incorporated the essential applicable principles of sun tzu's the art of war into their fields of work now it's time for teachers to benefit from these ancient lessons the art of teaching applies the art of war's five elements of warfare to the context of the twenty first century classroom

the art of teaching science emphasizes a humanistic experiential and constructivist approach to teaching and learning and integrates a wide variety of pedagogical learning tools these tools involve inquiry and experimentation reflection through writing and discussion as well as experiences with students science curriculum and pedagogy becoming a science teacher is a creative process and this innovative textbook encourages students to construct ideas about science teaching through their interactions with peers professionals and instructors and through hands on minds on activities designed to foster a collaborative thoughtful learning environment the art of teaching was written for the reflective educator who strives for a deeper understanding of what it means to be a fighter for children and who looks deeper into the why and how students behave and act the art of teaching is a book on strategy in and out of the classroom that is based on a 2400 year old book the art of war by sun tzu teaching is increasingly becoming a combative profession where legal and political skills must be united with the everyday aspects of teaching the illusion of just teaching a specific subject falls away once one steps into a public classroom the questions of what is the purpose of teaching and what is the purpose of learning are of significant importance when one faces student apathy and open hostility toward learning educators must learn the ways of the warrior teacher the complexity of what teachers do is incomprehensible to anyone who has not lived the experience if one examines in detail the multi dimensional multi layered multi faceted acts that a teacher performs each teaching day it almost defies belief for it is beyond heroic done well the impact is to influence students for all the days of their lives done well it leaves students altered for the better it takes a trained observer to perceive and comprehend the various acts both overt and subtle that a teacher carries out during the course of a school day this is the onus of this book to make explicit the professional tasks of a teacher in today's fast changing world where technology is rapidly replacing human interactions where disinformation is daily fed to a gullible public where funding and professional resources for schools are never enough where students come to school carrying physical and emotional burdens that would daunt most adults where the tasks of teachers are more demanding and more heartbreaking than ever before how a teacher gives his or her all and yet manages to keep at the job without burning out is a significant feature of this book not only are these professional tasks identified and explained but suggestions are offered for how new and practicing teachers may further hone those skills that each task demands knowing the tasks is not enough learning to apply them successfully is the key to becoming that master teacher opens a conversation about the life and work of the music teacher the author regards music teaching as interrelated with the rest of lived life and her themes encompass pedagogical skills as well as matters of character disposition value personality and musicality she urges music teachers to think and act artfully
